THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 25.

LOCAL NEWS.

For this section, threatening weather and rain during Friday, southwesterly winds, slightly warmer.

WEDDINGS.—Mr. B. T. Fendall, of this city, and Miss Florence P. Mason were married in St. John's Church, in Washington, yesterday, by Rev. Mr. Leonard. The bride wore a gown of white corded silk, en traine, with V-shaped bodice, full lace sleeves and white veil. She carried a bouquet of handsome Mareschal Neil roses. She was given away by her brother, Douglas Mason, esq., and Mr. W. E. Fendall, brother of the groom, was best man. The bridesmaids, Miss Miller and Miss Lamont, wore gowns of cream white and carried bunches of Mareschal Neil roses. The ushers were Mr. E. D. Brown, of Baltimore, and Dr. W. Brown, of this city. The bride and groom went North on their wedding tour. The marriage of Rev. A. G. Wardlaw, of Georgia, and Miss H. Lee Field, of Virginia, was solemnized last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cannon, in Washington. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. J. Moorman, of North Carolina, in the presence of a few friends of the happy couple from Maryland and Virginia. Miss Josephine Richards, of Baltimore, assisted the bride, and Mr. Wylie, of Danville, officiated as best man.

DEATH OF MRS. KEITH.—Mrs. Julia Keith, widow of the late Isham Keith, and mother of Judge James Keith, died at her home in Fauquier county on Monday last, in the 58th year of her age. The Warrenton Virginia says: "She was one of the most remarkable women of her times and up to the last few months her life retained, in full force, the attributes that made her so. Possessed of an extraordinary intellect she excelled in the acquirement of valuable knowledge. Her conversations upon current events were lighted with flashes of wit that made her at once a most instructive and charming companion. Age weakened her physically, but in disposition she never grew old. She took an active interest in all public events. Filled with patriotic fervor she loved and venerated the names of all who added to the glory of her native land."

THE MIKADO.—The National Mikado Company, selected from the church choir of Baltimore, Washington and this city, and composed of nine principals, headed by Miss Julie Rathbone as Yum Yum, an orchestra of fifteen musicians, led by Prof. Bernays, and a grand chorus of twenty-four, will present at the Opera House to-night Gilbert and Sullivan's popular opera, The Mikado. The chorus has been well trained and chosen from among the best voices attainable, special scenery and stage properties have been secured, and those having the matter in charge, feel assured that their efforts to produce this charming opera will meet with the substantial success worthy of such an undertaking.

THE MINERAL RAILROAD BILL.—Messrs. Herbert Bryant, J. B. Smoot, F. A. Reed, Park Agnew, I. Eichberg, F. L. Smith, J. S. B. Thompson and J. T. Burke left here for Richmond this evening, to urge the State Senate to pass the bill granting a charter to the Mineral Railroad. This bill has already passed the House of Delegates, but has met with some opposition in the Senate. It is proposed to build a railroad from Strasburg to Moorefield, which, it is claimed, would be greatly to the advantage of this city, and would not injure any other city in the State; why there should be opposition to granting a charter to the company is known only to the opposers of the bill.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and mild with three prisoners and one lodged at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

SENT ON.—James and John Little, the two young housebreakers, who were arrested in Washington last week, and their mother, were yesterday held for the grand jury, in that city. It will be remembered that some of the jewelry which was stolen by these boys in Washington was recovered in this city.

FISH.—Since yesterday's report only about 7000 herring and 1,000 shad have arrived at Fictown. Herring sold at from $3.50 to $4.00 per thousand and shad at from $2 to $3 per hundred. The run of glut herring is now looked for every day.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

New York, April 28.—11 a. m.—There was a quiet and steady opening to the stock market this morning, first prices showing insignificant changes only from last evening's final figures. The market was quite irregular in the early dealings, though the movement in prices was small either way, except in a few stocks. Later the market showed more decided strength, accompanied by increased activity. Toward 11 o'clock, however, prices again yielded, and the early gains in most cases were lost. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and generally heavy. Money easy at 4%.

BALTIMORE, April 28.—Va. 6s consolidated 52; 10-40s 43; new 3s 66½; past-due coupons 66 bid to-day.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, April 28, 1887.—There is an improved demand for Flour, and prices are well sustained. The Wheat markets are irregular, but with a hardening tendency; sweet, sound milling lots for prompt delivery may be quoted about 1c higher, while ordinary samples and futures are only a fraction stronger. Corn is firm. Rye and Oats are steady. Produce is fairly active at a decline, with more liberal receipts. The run of fish is unusually light for the season, and figures are without quotable change.

BALTIMORE, April 28.—Cotton steady; middling 10½. Flour steady and quiet. Wheat—Southern higher; red 93a96; amber 96a98; Western lower; No 2 winter red spot 92a92½; May 92a92½; June 92a92½; July 91a91½. Corn—Southern steady and quiet; white and yellow 48a49; Western lower; mixed spot 46½ bid; May 46½a47; June 47a47½. Oats firm; Southern and Pennsylvania 34a38; Western white 36a38; do mixed 34a35½. Chicago, April 28.—10:30 a. m.—The speculative offerings of Wheat continued to be very large again to-day. Free selling marked the opening on Change. The starting price for May delivery was 81½, or ½c lower than last night. The price dropped to 81½, and is now steady at 81½, with June at 82½. May Corn has declined to 37½. May Oats 27½. May Lard is $6 95.

New York, April 28.—Cotton firm; uplands 10½; Orleans 10 13-16; futures steady. Flour quiet and steady. Wheat lower. Corn lower. Pork firm at $16 50a17. Lard steady at $7 25.
